

Sexual Battery

The KU Public Safety Office is here to help any survivor of a sexual battery. Our department will try to accommodate your needs. You and your safety are of utmost importance to us. Sexual battery is something you do not have to face alone.

KUPSO will:

- Do everything we can to make you comfortable.
- Not judge or blame you.
- Advise you of the University and community support resources available to you.
- Let you decide which resources to utilize.
- Fully investigate the crime.
- Keep you informed on the progress of the case.

The KU Public Safety Office urges any survivor of a sexual battery to contact someone for assistance. If you are not comfortable contacting the police, we urge you to seek medical attention for yourself.
